

ii. Easter Event:

- i. Secretary Tarman stated that an organization came to her and said that it would be a good idea to have an event similar to Spooktacular, except for Easter. The orgs would facilitate games and we would purchase items, such as eggs and candy.
- ii. Everyone appeared to be in agreement to host this event. Secretary Tarman said that she will work on a flyer and work with Bridget on the logistics.

iii. Graduation Cords Proposal:

- i. President Ring stated that Secretary Tarman created a proposal for us to present to Dr. Morris and the Cabinet. instead of cP MCID 5BDC q0.0000092 62 72 reW'nE
- ii. Secretary Tarman mentioned that she spoke with Dr. Morris before the meeting and he brought up that they are looking into purchasing honor stoles

- v. Secretary Tarman asked how many people in the room are athletes. One individual raised their hand. She stated that the main reason we kept the athletics related section is because it is harder for us to bring athletics in and cover those areas of need.
- vi. Following this, there was more extensive discussion. If you wish to know the full discussion, please get with Secretary Tarman for the meetings recording.
- vii. After discussion, it was decided that we will table the approval of the Constitution until next week. The Board will speak with Dr. Morris to see what he suggests and will bring it forth at the next meeting.
 - a. Vice-President Barber motioned to table the discussion and approval.
 - b. Senator Spinks seconded.
