

Several representatives from GSC and Pierpont were on hand for the articulation agreement signing will be back on campus tomorrow evening to accept

Year award at our annual Alumni Banquet.

Dr. Beane joined ETS/Educational Testing Service as a Client Relations Director in 2017. In this role, she serves as the first line of contact for their clients in Alaska, California, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah and Washington.

Dr. Beane has over 20 years of education experience, including posts as an executive director of the Office of Educator Effectiveness and Licensure

Glenville State Teams with Pierpont Community & Technical College

On Thursday, April 19 Glenville State College and Pierpont Community and Technical College announced that they are teaming to make it easier for students to move seamlessly from the completion of a two-year program to earning a

As a part of the agreement, Pierpont students who successfully complete an Associate of Applied Science program in Business Management, Medical Laboratory Technology, Physical Therapist Assistant, Medical Laboratory Technology, Criminal Justice, or Health Sciences with a GPA of 2.0 or better will be guaranteed admission into

Additionally, those Pierpont students will receive a one time,

at the West Virginia Department of Education, an elementary school principal,
a middle school English and reading teacher, an elementary school teacher and a preschool special needs teacher in North

a National Board Certified Teacher (NBCT) and is a three-time recipient of Arch Coal's Golden Apple Achievement Award for excellence in teaching.

Outside of work, Monica takes pleasure in exploring the west coast or as she husband, Sterling Beane, Jr.

where he is an Executive Advisor for Amazon Web Services. Their son, Price student at Western Oregon University.

We are proud to have Monica as our 2018 Alumna of Year and proud to feature Spotlight.

Several current students, graduates, and mentors with Program were recently featured in an article and accompanying video series.

Earlier this month the video crew trailed several musicians in order to see a glimpse into Appalachian culture through the lens of bluegrass music. Throughout the interviews featured in the article, readers are introduced to the various ways someone traveling through the West Virginia hills might come into contact with bluegrass music; from local radio station programming and informal jam sessions to full-scale concerts with an admission fee.

accompanies the piece.

Trisha (Metz) Anderson. Additionally, current student Josh Pitcock was highlighted during a portion of the video that was filmed at the Alpine Theatre in Ripley, West Virginia.

