

Katrina Beth (Boggs)

Food Bank serves 48 of West Virginia's 55 counties. She travels the state delivering food to different pantries, school backpack programs, senior centers, and on-site kitchens. Beth notes that helping with the pantry is very satisfying knowing that those in need might otherwise not have access to food and fresh produce without their efforts.

Outside her efforts at the food pantry, Beth enjoys reading, crocheting, going to the beach, and especially spending time with her granddaughters.

Beth currently resides in Gassaway, West Virginia and said the following about her time at GSC, "Glennville State is the reason that I'm a college graduate. I had planned to attend another warmly and made the transition easy. I received a wonderful education and made many friends whom I still stay in contact with. I
