A decorated Air Force retiree, Gallagher served four years as an enlisted member right out of high school when he was an airborne navigational repairman with a SAC bomb wing in Kansas. After being honorably discharged, he attended GSC where he was a member of the 1959 championship football team and achieved a secondary teaching degree in Biology and Physical Science.

Upon graduation, he pursued an additional 21 years of service in the Air Force as a commissioned officer where he served in various assignments both in the United States and overseas. While stationed in Wiesbaden Germany, he obtained a master's degree in secondary education from the University of Southern California.

Upon retiring from Langley Air Force Base, Virginia, in 1985, Tom was honored by being awarded the
