

Janet (James) Bailey '79 retired from Glenville State in 2016 and is currently serving as an Administrative Assistant in the West Virginia State Senate.

While a student at Glenville State, she was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority, Student Government, Ladies of the White Rose, intramural sports, and worked in the Robert F. Kidd Library as a student assistant. She was a majorette, cheerleader, and a member of the Lady Pioneer Basketball and Track and Field Teams. She graduated from Glenville State in 1979 with a Glenville State University will celebrate its annual Homecoming during the week of October 10, culminating on Saturday, October 15. A number of events are planned throughout the week for students, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends. Everyone is encouraged to make plans to come back to Glenville.

The special Homecoming honoree group will include former Percussion Ensemble members and the Homecoming Parade Marshal is Professor Emeritus John McKinney '73. McKinney, who led the Percussion Ensemble at Glenville State for nearly 40 years, retired last year.

Returning alumni and friends are invited to visit an exhibit highlighting the 150-year history of Glenville State. The exhibit – entitled "150 Years of a Changing Landscape: Glenville Normal School to Glenville State University" – includes photographs and historic artifacts. A reception for the exhibit is planned for the evening of Friday, October 14 from 3:00-5:00 p.m. in the Fine Arts Center gallery. The event is free to attend; light refreshments will be served.

On Saturday, October 15 the Homecoming Parade will take place in downtown Glenville starting at 10:00 a.m. All Pioneer

Janet has had many successes in her career; some highlights include leading the Gilmer County High School Lady Titan Track & Field Team to a State Championship in 1983, serving on NCAA committees on Competitive Safeguards and Medical Issues, receiving the Pathfinder Award through the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance (now the Society of Health and Physical Educators, known as SHAPE America), and a Legacy of Women Award in Sports through the West
